Face Coverings – Guidance for employers and managers

Dear Registered Manager or Provider

You will be aware that the number of positive COVID-19 cases in Wales is rising. HIW would like to take this opportunity to remind you to view the COVID-19 section of the Welsh Government website to ensure you are up-to-date with the current arrangements for preventing the spread of the virus. There is also a dedicated page for those of you operating a service within Caerphilly County Borough - <https://llyw.cymru/cyfnod-clo-lleol>

HIW would like to draw your immediate attention to the new guidance on face coverings. This guidance places some new requirements on you regarding your role in explaining what the requirements are, encouraging visitors to comply with the regulations including the appropriate wearing of face coverings.

HIW would encourage you to read this guidance fully and review your existing Covid-19 risk assessment in order to identify any additional actions you need to take at this time.

Should you have any queries or questions please e-mail: hiw@gov.wales
